Public Art in Kingston

The City of Kingston is committed to developing a Public Art Program which reflects and celebrates our history, stories, cultures and sense of place through ephemeral, temporary and permanent public art.

We welcome suggested locations from the community in line with the Public Art Policy and Public Art Placement plan. If you would like to suggest a location for future Public Art within Kingston please fill in the form below.

Thank you for submitting a new location suggestion for Kingston's Public Art program. By submitting a location suggestion for Kingston's Public Art Program, you acknowledge that your submission does not guarantee the suggestion will be adopted or chosen by Kingston City Council. All suggestions will be reviewed pursuant to the Public Art Policy (Policy) and Public Art Placement Plan (Plan). Any decisions regarding the implementation of submissions to feature in Kingston's public art program are subject to Council's appropriate and reasonable discretion as guided by the Policy and Plan. Any submissions made may become public records. Thank you for your input!
